THE PAPER PEON SAYS THAT IT IS FREE (?)

The Times-Union prates of its independence and protests that its morality is above reproach.

That its influence cannot be bought.

What of its claim?—

Nothing.

Every Judge has heard that same claim of morality from the convicted prisoner brought up for sentence—

He says he is innocent, but the testimony proves his guilt.

The Times-Union says that it is honest, fair-dealing and free from control.

But it offers no proof of such assertion, nor can it.

Proofs of its dishonesty are many.

Here are a few instances—

It printed—

Advertisements of life insurance companies as telegraphic news matter.

False dispatches to boost East Coast automobile races, and fake stories about carnivals, from which the editor of the Times-Union received profit.

Advertisements from the Christian Science Literary Bureau as pure reading matter.

"Tainted news" from a Washington literary bureau. (The Times-Union was given national exposure by Collier's Weekly of this fraud and has ceased publication of the "tainted" letters.)

"Tainted" stuff from a railway literary bureau of Chicago and crediting the reading matter to "Workman" of Jacksonville.

The Times-Union "doctors" news, misquotes men and things and garbles editorial utterances of others. (A recent and noted instance is that of the Monticello News.)

It suppresses news.

Here are instances—

Local news of Jacksonville that some influential person asks to have suppressed.

News of wrecks on the East Coast Railway and other roads of the State where it is possible for concealment to be practiced.

News of any character occurring along the line of the East Coast Railway that Mr. Flagler or Mr. Parrott does not want printed.

No news about the Standard Oil Company, until the octopus declared for publicity about a year ago and organized a literary bureau.

News suppression by the Times-Union has been the most striking feature of that paper since it has been under its present ownership.

The story of a prostitute of journalism.

Why does the Times-Union lead a life of shame?

For the profit of its owners—not financial profit—but the profit of power that would enslave the people of Florida to corporate interest.

Who are the owners of the Times-Union?

The Times-Union is owned by the Atlantic Coast Line, the Florida East Coast and the Seaboard Air Line Railway Companies.

The Times-Union is NOT a newspaper—it is a chattel.

And the Chattel of a Republican who contributed $2,000 to elect a Republican Governor of New York.

PUT THE OLUSTEE MONUMENT AT OLUSTEE.

Jokesmiths had a good chance when the World's Fair of 1902 was held in 1903. I remember the changes rung on this question and this answer.

I also recall that the battle of Waterloo was not fought at Waterloo, but at a place near-by.

There is now a movement, in the shape of a bill, to put the Confederate monument commemorating the battle of OLUSTEE at LAKE CITY.

It is all right to have a monument commemorating the battle of Olustee.

It was the biggest battle fought in Florida during the Civil War.

The numbers engaged were few, but the results of the battle were great. It prevented the Union forces from continuing their march east, and Florida, at the close of
